Chapter 1 by Taylor

I kept hearing the voices screaming. I could feel my head throbbing, The tears streaming down my cold, red face. All I could think about was what they said. Stuck and afraid, I hid into in a dark cramped corner. Crying were no one could hear me, letting everything out. I cried for hours alone in the dark corner. In my head all I could think about the words the pain going thru my body. Silence drew over and it grew darker . All I could do was cry, My head was pounding and my body was throbbing but I couldn't help that. I was scared, afraid and alone.
